ROME.—Santa Maria Sopra Minerva.

LL 7615

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

Santa Maria Sopra Minerva. Rome was skilful in reminding Paganism of its overthrow. The title Santa Maria Sopra Minerva is a case in point. This Dominican church of the 14th century was built upon Pompey's temple of the goddess who had no mother. Being Gothic, it is an exception to the rule of ecclesiastical architecture in Rome. It contains a statue of the Saviour, by Michael Angelo.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Printed in England.

CT PA 12, 9

"VIDE WIDE WORLD" SERIES. ROME. Series III.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" [Regd.] Postcard 7555

From "ROME," illustrated by Alberto Pisa, L.L. & C. Rome.